

Laura Rauscher, CAP
Director of Development and Philanthropy Services
New Hampshire Charitable Foundation

Laura Rauscher is the director of development and philanthropy services at the New Hampshire Charitable Foundation. In this role, Laura leads a team of philanthropy advisors who help donors across the state do more with their charitable giving.

Prior to joining the Foundation in 2010, Laura served as a Donor Relations Manager at the Crotched Mountain Foundation in Greenfield, NH which helps children and adults with disabilities achieve maximum independence in the community. She also served as co-executive director at Monadnock Worksource, a nonprofit in Peterborough, NH, serving adults with developmental disabilities.

Laura is a Certified Advisor in Philanthropy® through the American College and is a fellow in Charitable Estate Planning from the Charitable Estate Planning Institute.

Laura serves on the board of NFI North.

Laura lives in Henniker, NH with her husband.
